Application denied. Under Section 3582(c)(1)(A) of Title 18, United States Code, a defendant seeking a sentence reduction must, among other things, show extraordinary and compelling circumstances. Defendant here has not done so. Maintaining good conduct in prison is not uncommon, and indeed is expected. See United States v. Alvarez, No. 89-CR-229, 2020 WL 4904586, at *7 (E.D.N.Y. Aug. 20, 2020). The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to send a copy of this Order to Mr. Gang.

SO ORDERED.

Dear Honorable Judge Seibel:

This letter is a formal request for your consideration for a time cut. I have completed seven years of my twelve-year sentence with good behavior from the initial time of my incarceration until now.

I am currently in a half-way house and have never violated any rules or terms of my present arrangement. I humbly ask that this time cut be granted in hopes of moving on in a more positive direction with my life. I have already wasted so much time and have learned many lessons from my past choices.

I fully understand the seriousness of my past actions and I hope that you will consider this request so that I can continue working on myself to become a productive member of society.

Thank you for your time and consideration it is most certainly appreciated.

Sincerely,
